Professional Profile:

Nathan directs and produces TV commercials, brand films, VO's, music videos and short films on behalf of his production company, Safe Hands Productions. His creative output and reputation for forward-thinking strategic-based video content has brought him to the attention of some of the world's biggest brands and fastest growing agencies in the UK. His experience and expertise in both marketing content and film production are utilised in digital content, radio ads and television commercials nation-wide. A detailed eye and obsession with continually breaking boundaries has seen multi-million pound campaigns lead to continuous collaborations with some very happy clients.

Employment:

Safe Hands Productions (2025 -)

Founder/Creative Director - Lead producer and director across all short film projects, television commercials and digital content campaigns. Project appraisal, project development, raising finance, client relations, legal responsibilities and project management. Following wrap, providing cut notes and engaging creatively throughout the entire post process.

Omaze (2023 - 2025)

Director (Full-time) - Charged with directing the majority of Omaze's social media content and some Television Commercials. My role was to lead the production team on set, working closely with the presenters to produce an engaging delivery as well as come up with the creative strategic messaging. I have improved their process and efficiency dramatically by bringing in production processes that were previously unaccounted for.

Transmission (2022 - 2023)

Producer (Freelance) - Senior producer on winner reveals, charity reveals and main house shoot for Transmission's main client Omaze. Also assisted in pre-production for other clients.

Pavilion Films (2020 - 2022)

Producer/Director - Senior producer on all projects, Director on some, ranging from digital content/social media content for global brands, music videos and short films. Managing an in-house production team tasked with liaising with clients (both agency and direct-to-brand) understanding their marketing needs, developing creative briefs and executing projects through to production and post-production. Also managed the company's finance, tax, staffing and legal affairs.
